FURTHER INITIAL SCHEDULING CONFERENCE is held. The parties inform that there is still factual and or partial discovery pending to be performed. There are seventy-nine plaintiffs still pending in the case. There will be no expert testimony in the case. Interrogatories and requests for production of documents have been exchanged. In light of the discovery still outstanding in the case, the parties jointly request until May 30, 2000 to conclude all discovery matters.

The Court believes the extension requested by the parties is unreasonable, not enough time, and sets August 30, 2000 as discovery cut-off date. THERE WILL BE NO FURTHER EXTENSIONS.

The parties are granted until October 30, 2000 for filing dispositive motions, if any.

Settlement Conference is set for November 28, 2000 at 1:30 P.M.
